Presentation

March 5, 2021

Three students from Andrew Hill Highschool will give a presentation of their experience at the President's Winter Retreat for Interact Presidents. We will hear from Annie Le, Wesley Kieu and Nazle Rohim.

My name is Annie Le, I am a sophomore at Andrew P. Hill High School and I serve Interact as co Digital Media Coordinator! A fun fact about me are that I can't eat spicy

My name is Nazle Rohim and I'm the Freshman Rep. at Andrew Hill. A fun fact about me is that I'm learning embroidery.

Little Free Libraries

My name is Wesley Kieu, I'm one of the outreach coordinators at Andrew P. Hill. I'm a junior and a fun fact is I play multiple instruments.

First Zoom Meeting with RCSV and Angie Cordoza (President, Evergreen Valley Rotary Club on 2/17/21. The purpose of the meeting was to gain information and determine level of participation for our club. We discussed pricing, maintenance, locations, sponsorship, books, etc.

A Committee was formed last night at Board meeting. If anyone wants to participate, contact Carol.

RCSJSV continues the activity of donating a book on a weekly basis to Grant Elementary School Library. Each book is signed by the presenter and adding a written message of encouragement to the reader. Water for Africa will be signed by Koen Kvanrompay.

No water, no dreams.

Ashanti has big dreams – bigger than the bucket she hauls her family's water in. Bigger than her tiny African village. Ashanti longs to go to school but her days are spent as the water carrier. With news of the water man's visit to her village, Ashanti's hope is given life. But what happens when no water is found? Will she continue to believe that dreams come true?

Water for Africa brings readers into Ashanti's world where one man's desire to please God changes the lives of a community. All proceeds from the sale of this book goes to the Water for Africa organisation. Share a copy with your favourite dreamer, to bring water -and hope- to children like Ashanti today.
